Dulin Clifton “D.C.”
Crumpler

Dulin Clifton Crumpler, 83, passed away Friday, March 20, 2015.

He was born on May 26, 1931, to Shelby and Atsie Bell Crumpler in Jonesboro, La. D.C. married Beverly Jane Hawkins on April 4, 1953, who preceded him in death. He then married Yvonne Pilley who survives. He was a member of the Church of God and retired from Cities Service as an outside machinist. He then started Crumpler’s Shipbuilding Co. Inc. with his brother James and continued to be the owner until his passing.

Survivors include his son, Randal Crumpler and wife Shelly of Westlake; daughter, Donna Calvert of Westlake; daughter-in-law, Janise Crumpler of Sulphur; brothers, Billy Crumpler and Marvin Crumpler, both of Westlake, Bobby Crumpler and wife Garnetia, and Kenneth Crumpler and wife Linda, all of Dry Creek; sister, Eula Hebert of Sulphur; 12 grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, Timothy Wayne Crumpler; daughter, Anita Beth Stanley; parents, Shelby and Atsie Crumpler; brother, James Crumpler; and sister, Diane Dubose.

D.C. loved his land, his family, his animals and his business.

Visitation will be Saturday, March 21, 2015, from 5 p.m.-9 p.m. and will resume Sunday at noon until the start of service in Hixson Funeral Home of Westlake. His funeral will be on Sunday at 2 p.m. in the funeral home. Burial will be in Magnolia Cemetery in Westlake.