Dormon Smith Davenport

Ms. Dormon Smith Davenport [affectionately known as “Ms. D”] passed from this life on Tuesday, Nov 13, 2012, at the age of 92 years in the home of her son Charles in Green Cove Springs, FL. She was born Mar 20, 1920, to the union of Joseph and Bertha [Royer] Smith in Oretta, LA. She graduated from DeQuincy High School in 1936 and went to Lake Charles to pursue a career in secretarial office management. She retired with over 50 years at Citgo in Dec 1999 as an Executive Secretary and moved to DeRidder to follow a long dream of restoration of an antebellum home. She leaves to cherish her memory sons Charles David and his wife Kathy [Oubre] Davenport of Green Cove Springs, FL, and Jerome Paul Davenport of Houston, TX; grandsons David Mitchell and his wife Rainey Davenport of Green Cove Springs, FL, Daniel Corey and his wife Vora Davenport of Augusta, GA, Garth and his wife Stacey Davenport of Denver, CO, granddaughter Angela Davenport of Denver, CO, greatgrandsons Neil and Ben of Augusta, GA, Joshua Davenport of Denver, CO, greatgranddaughter Wren Davenport of Denver, CO, a sister Wanda S Cooley of DeRidder, LA, and 12 nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, brothers Vernon C Smith and Kenneth C Smith. At her request due to great distance of traveling for family, no memorial service will be held.
