Marvin L’Gene Harger

Marvin L’Gene Harger, 92, of Sulphur, passed away on Sept. 2, 2014, in his residence. Marvin was born in Altus, Ark., and served in the U.S. Navy for six years as a cryptologist CT1. He worked as a charter boat captain for 10 years, a machinist at Cit-Con and a salesman at Blake Building Materials in Carlyss. Marvin was president for C.L.E.A.N., he was an environmental activist lobbying for the organization in Baton Rouge. He was appointed by Gov. Edwin Edwards to the Emergency Response Commission. Marvin was the owner of the Safety Training Center in Sulphur. He was a member of Christ Worship Center in Sulphur.

Marvin is survived by his two sons, the Rev. Brian “Bo” Harger and wife Mavis and Mark Christian Harger, all of Carlyss; nine grandchildren, Keith Harger and wife Lisa of Kentucky, Shane Harger and wife Lizeth of New Mexico, Shawn Harger and wife Natalie of Florida, Christi Jensen and husband Brian of Florida, Jacob Harger and wife Daneisha of Lake Charles, Joshua Harger of Sulphur, Leighanna Harger Welch of Sulphur, Andrew “Drew” Harger and wife Rachelle of Sulphur, and Madison Harger of Sulphur; 12 greatgreatchildren; and a brother, Glenn Harger of Largo, Fla.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Darvin and Minnie Harger; wife, Maxine Clarice Blake Harger; two brothers, Ray and Harold Harger; three sisters-in-law, Norma Harger wife of Harold Harger, Norma Harger wife of Glenn Harger and Agnes Harger wife of Ray Harger; and a granddaughter, Shannon Harger.

Funeral service will be held on Friday, Sept. 5, 2014, at 2 p.m. at Johnson and Robison Funeral Home with the Rev. Brian “Bo” Harger officiating. Burial will be in Biloxi National Cemetery in Biloxi, Miss., on Monday, Sept. 8, 2014, at 1:30 p.m. The family will receive friends on Thursday, Sept. 4, 2014, from 2-9 p.m. at the funeral home with visitation resuming on Friday at 10 a.m. until the time of service. Words of comfort may be shared with the family at www.johnsonrobisonfh.net.