Floyd Johnson, 85, passed away Friday, Sept. 26, 2014, in Sulphur, La. Services will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 1, 2014, at 2 p.m. at Johnson and Robison Funeral Home with Father Ruben Buller officiating. Burial will follow in Magnolia Cemetery in Westlake under the direction of Johnson and Robison Funeral Home. Visitation will be at the funeral home on Tuesday Sept. 30, 2014, from 5-9 p.m. and resume on Wednesday from 10 a.m. until the time of service.

Floyd retired from Cities Service in 1985 after 37 years. He served in the Marines and fought in the Korean War. He was an avid hunter and fisherman who took advantage of everything Louisiana had to offer as the Sportsman’s Paradise. Floyd would always do for others but would never ask for help himself. He was an ornery old man of a different era. You had to know him to love him — and he was loved by many. The neighborhood kids loved Mr. Floyd. No matter how hard of a time he gave them, they always came back for more.

Floyd is survived by his daughters, Charlotte Arras, Aline (Mike) Hudson, Suzanne Johnson and Pearl Fruge; sister, Eula Rae Buller; sister-in-law, JoAnne Johnson McMillan; grandchildren, Amanda (Danny) Weir, Brian (Anne) Hudson, Raymond (Jennifer) Fruge, Jonathan Arras and Scott Hudson; great-grandchildren, Samuel and Charlie Hudson, Julian and Andrew Fruge and Gunner and unborn baby Weir.

Floyd was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Bennie Lee Johnson; and grandson, Daniel Short.
