Kenneth Loran Livengood

Kenneth Loran Livengood died Saturday January 13, 2012 at a local care facility in Corydon, Iowa. He was born in Knobel, Ark in 1913 where he lived until adulthood. He and his wife and only child moved to Maplewood, La. in 1946 and later moved to Sulphur, La where he resided until 2000 where at that time due to health reasons relocated to Allerton, Iowa to live with his son and his wife to be cared for.

He was employed by City Service retiring after 31 years. Kenneth was a Southern Baptist Minister as Interim Pastor of several churches in the surrounding area.

Survivors include one child Ron Livengood and wife Betty of Allerton, Iowa. He has 3 grandchildren, Lora Perkins and husband Tab Sulphur, La Steven Howard and wife Amy Fairview Heights, Illinois and Kimberly Anderson of Allerton, Iowa. 5 greatgrand children, Matthew Perkins and Luke Perkins of Sulphur, La Cody Anderson and Anthony Anderson of Allerton, Iowa and Cameron Kai Howard of Fairview Heights, Illinois, 2 great-great grandchildren, Clay and Kaylee Perkins of Sulphur, La. 3 nieces Kay Francis McGuire Maplewood, Martha Grunwald of Texas, Edna Cantwell of Allerton, Iowa and 1 nephew Gary Livengood of Texas.

Kenneth was preceded in death by his wife of 58 years Juanita Bell Livengood and his second wife Doris Reeves Livengood and both parents Minnie Livengood of Knobel, Ark and Andrew (Andy) Livengood of Knobel, Ark. and 1 sibling Delmer Livengood of Maplewood.

A graveside service will be at 11 a.m. Friday, Jan. 20, at Mimosa Pines Cemetery in Carlyss, La. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in his name to the Louisiana Baptist Children’s Home.